

Multicultural Business Connect Advisory Services

Community Migrant Resource Centre (CMRC) is engaged by the Department of Industry to deliver multicultural advisory services as a provider of the NSW Business Connect Multicultural Program, in-language business advisory services (Arabic, Cantonese, Mandarin, Korean and Vietnamese).

Northern Settlement Services (NSS) is a partner with CMRC in the provision of business advisor services in the Hunter, Central Coast and New England regions of NSW.

Business Connect Multicultural Advisory Services provide one-to-one business advice sessions, business advisory services, and training workshops to small businesses and disrupted industries across NSW State Wide.

- Provide high quality, professional, culturally relevant business advice and business skills training to individuals, start-ups and small business from multicultural communities in NSW.
- Promote the creation of new businesses and small business growth through advice, education, skills training and promoting business strategies and innovation that improve resilience, boost productivity and increases the capabilities of multicultural small businesses to reach new markets.
- Provide services across the whole of NSW, particularly ensuring services are made available comprehensively (and regularly) in regional areas where there are multicultural communities.
- Provide services to multicultural businesses in the disability sector or those that want to provide services in the disability sector through the NDIS.
- Provide advisors and presenters who have the linguistic and cultural skills to promote high quality general business advice and mentoring based on their small business experience, expertise and extensive contacts and networks within multicultural communities.
