

Are you a caregiver?

Are you an aged care professional looking for a great place to continue your career?

Perhaps you have no experience, but are you looking for a meaningful career in an exciting profession?

NSS has multiple opportunities available for Casual and Permanent Part Time Aged Care Support Workers. Applicants with a genuine interest in the field but without experience or qualifications will be considered, with on-the-job training and traineeship options available for the right person.

About us

NSS has been supporting and advocating for multicultural communities for 40 years. This year, we celebrate these 40 years of service to the Hunter, Central Coast & New England regions of NSW with the launch of a new Vision and Mission statement. Our Vision is for a connected community in which diversity defines and nourishes us. Our Mission is to support and inspire culturally diverse people and communities to overcome barriers and thrive.

About the role

You will support an older person in their own home under a defined care plan to improve their quality of life at home. Common tasks in this role include helping with regular day to day activities such as personal care, meal preparation, assistance with medications, transport, and light domestic assistance to maintain a safe and clean home environment.

Desirable skills and experience for this role include:

- Certificate III (Individual Support), relevant experience, OR willingness to obtain the qualification
- Ability to travel locally between clients, and be flexible to work various shifts
- Genuine empathy and interest in working in a multicultural workplace with people of CALD backgrounds
- A current driver's licence
- A reliable motor vehicle with registration and comprehensive insurance
- A mobile phone and email address with internet connectivity
- Current First Aid Certificate
- A commitment to the principles of Work, Health & Safety

NSS is committed to promoting social inclusion and diversity, including by seeking diversity within our workforce. We encourage and welcome applications from diverse community groups and ages including people of CALD backgrounds. NSS adheres to the principles of equal employment opportunity. For further information about NSS please visit our website at www.nsservices.com.au
