

Have you been ripped off when buying goods?
Get to know your consumer rights!

come to a free seminar

11am to 2pm on Friday 25th March

@ Northern Settlement Services

8 Chaucer st Hamilton, food will will be provided.

Hunter Community Legal Centre will talk about legal issues when buying goods and services, knowing your rights as a consumer and where to get help when things go wrong. The session will also look at ordering online and avoiding scams.

This event has been made possible with assistance from NSW Seniors Festival and Northern Settlement Services.

Supported by

